DECLARATION OF NANCY RAPOPORT

I, Nancy Rapoport, declare as follows:

1. I am the court appointed Ethics Compliance Monitor (the "Monitor") pursuant to this Court's Order Appointing Nancy Rapoport as Ethics Compliance Monitor entered on August 7, 2023 (the "Monitor Order") [Dkt. No. 363].

2. In the foregoing capacity, I have personal knowledge of the facts set forth below based on my participation in the events or as a result of my review of the record, and, if called upon to testify, I could and would do so competently and truthfully.

3. I make this Declaration in support of my First Application for Payment of Fees and Expenses (the "Application" incurred by me in connection with the Case for services rendered from July 24, 2023¹ through January 31, 2024 (the "Covered Period").

Statement of Facts

4. Debtor filed its Petition on March 20, 2023 (the "Petition Date").

5. I was appointed on August 7, 2023 [Dkt. No. 363].

6. The Debtor filed its schedules on April 4, 2023.

7. On July 7, 2023, as Dk. No. 191, Trustee filed Motion for Entry of an Order (A) Approving Sale, Subject to Overbid, of Assets Free and Clear of All Liens, Claims, Encumbrances and Interests Pursuant To 11 U.S.C. § 363(b) and (B) Approving Assumption and Assignment of Certain Executory Contracts and Unexpired Leases and Other Agreements ("Sale Motion"). On July 21, 2023, the Court conducted an all-day hearing. At the conclusion of the hearing, the Court announced its decision to grant the Sale Motion and stated substantial findings and conclusions on the record. On July 22, 2023, as Dkt. No. 320, the Court entered its order approving the Sale Motion, finding that the Trustee could properly sell the assets identified in the Sale Motion. On August 3, 2023, as Dkt. No. 352, the Court entered a further order granting the Sale Motion and approving the asset purchase agreement with the successful overbidder. On August 4, 2023, the sale funded and closed.

¹ I was not appointed as Monitor until August 7, 2023; however, the Trustee requested that I perform work prior to my appointment to assist him in the performance of his duties.

8. On August 7, 2023, as Dk. No. 363, the Court entered its order appointing me as Monitor (“Monitor”) as the post-sale monitor (“Monitor Order”). Pursuant to the Monitor Order, I have helped with a multitude of matters including, but not limited to, the assumption notice and protective order between the OCC and the Buyer (Morning Law Group). There have been periodic meetings, and there do not appear to be any issues that have not been resolved. Unless otherwise ordered, I will serve for a period of one year after my appointment.

9. As set forth in the Monitor Order, the fees and expenses of the Monitor shall be paid by the Estate, up to the first $100,000.00, upon proper application to the Bankruptcy Court, and additional fees and expenses of the Monitor shall be paid by Buyer, up to $100,000.00. Any amounts in excess of $200,000.00 will be the responsibility of the Seller's Estate. Because the Estate does not yet have unencumbered funds due to various disputes with alleged secured creditors, Trustee is negotiating an agreement with MLG to make the initial payments.

Scope of Employment

10. The Monitor Order provides: "... Bankruptcy Court will authorize the payment of 80% of fees and 100% expenses each month, based on a monthly fee statement to be filed with the Bankruptcy Court." Monitor Order at 6:1-2. Pursuant to the terms of my employment, my minimum monthly fee is $5,000.00. I have filed Monthly Statements for each month (or partial month) since my appointment. Although Monitor's 2024 rate is $1,100.00, she is not raising her rates for the duration of her appointment in this case. Attached hereto as Exhibit "1" is a summary of those monthly fee statements.

11. In the Monitor Order, this Court appointed me to "monitor the Buyer's compliance with generally understood ethical standards and consumer protection obligations relating thereto and not to act as an attorney or to provide any legal advice whatsoever to the Buyer or to any of the Buyer's to-be-assumed clients. Given the reach of the operations, Monitor's role shall not include specific compliance with any given state's ethics rules but will be based on generally established legal ethics principles." Monitor Order at para. 2, p. 3; see also id. at para. 4, pp. 3-4. In this role, I am "vested with all rights and powers reasonably necessary to carry out such powers, duties, authority, and responsibilities. In the event of any conflict between the APA and this Order, the terms of this Order shall control."

12. In particular, my duties include the following:

6. a. work with all diligence to confirm and oversee compliance with the ethical issues raised as part of the representations and warranties of the Buyer as set forth in the APA, including but not limited to sections 12(j) through 12(k), section 12(m) and sections 12(q), as follows ...:

i. Buyer's LSAs and the implementation thereof have been modified ("Modified LSA's") for compliance with the Telephone Consumer Protection Act, 47 U.S.C. § 227 ("TCPA"), the Telemarketing Sales Rule, 16 C.F.R. Part 310 (the "TSR"), and the Credit Repair Organizations Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1679 (the "CROA"), as well as all applicable laws and regulations as well as any Order of the Bankruptcy Court;

ii. The performance of the Modified LSAs will similarly comply with the TCPA, TSR, and the CROA, as well as all applicable laws and regulations as well as any Order of the U.S. Bankruptcy Court;

iii. Review and recommend the procedures to assume and assign the reformed LSAs as set forth in the APA, and as may be further ordered by the Bankruptcy Court;

iv. Buyer's cooperation with the requests, oversight, and inquiries of the Monitor;

v. Buyer's provision of profit and loss statements, balance sheets, deposit accounts, and other financial information related to the Active Executory Contracts and Inactive Executory Contracts being purchased by Buyer; and

vi. Buyer's provision of both reports and administrative access into Buyer's ACH processing merchant account and related bank accounts, as well as customer relationship management software, such as Debt Pay Pro (or other similar software) for the purpose of monitoring Buyer's compliance with the APA as it relates to Active and Inactive Executory Contracts it is purchasing.

b. work with all diligence to confirm and oversee reformation of the terms of Buyer's Legal Services Agreement;

c. provide regular reports to the Bankruptcy Court, which reports shall be filed on the Bankruptcy Court's docket, with electronic notice to the Trustee and Committee, and which reports may include a discussion of the Buyer's possible violation of generally accepted legal ethics principles, if any.

1 Id. at para. 6, pp. 3-4. Pursuant to the Monitor Order, this First Report was due no later than the
2 "120' day after the Closing," and subsequent reports are due at 90-day intervals. Id. at para. 7, 3 pp. 6-7. I filed my First Report on November 27, 2023 [Doc. No. 720].

4 13. From the moment that I began working with Morning Law Group ("MLG")—in 5 particular, with Joshua Armstrong and members of his team, and with MLG's bankruptcy counsel
6 Zev Shechtman—I was pleased to see that MLG had a "clients-first" attitude. MLG was intent on 7 ensuring that its Legal Services Agreements were written in easy-to-understand language, not
8 legalese; that the 90-Day Notice sent to Litigation Practice Group's former clients was equally clear;
9 that any financial audits requested by the Trustee or the Creditors' Committee protected confidential
10 client information; and that its operations stayed far away from the behaviors that had gotten 11 Litigation Practice Group into trouble. In addition to the productive discussions that I have had with 12 MLG, I have had equally productive discussions with the Trustee and with counsel for the Trustee 13 and for the Creditors' Committee. In my opinion, everyone with whom I am working wants to see 14 MLG's representation of its clients succeed.

15 14. Paragraph 7 of the Monitor Order provides in part:

16 7. The Monitor shall, among other things, and subject to this
17 Order of Appointment:

18 b. serve, without bond or other security, with the Monitor's
19 fees subject to final approval by the Bankruptcy Court,
20 subject to the fee allocation provisions between the Estate
21 and Buyer, as set forth at section 3, above; the Monitor may 22 submit interim fee applications no more often than every 120
23 days pursuant to the Local Bankruptcy Rules. In the interim, 24 the Bankruptcy Court will authorize the payment of 80% of 25 fees and 100% expenses each month, based on a monthly fee
26 statement to be filed with the Bankruptcy Court. A fee 27 application shall be filed no sooner than every 120 days. It is 28 further provided that the Monitor shall be authorized to use the services of Special Counsel to the Trustee for the purpose of preparing and submitting such fee applications and in filing any reports or other pleadings with the Bankruptcy Court....

15 15. In order to comply with other orders of this Court concerning the use of funds, the 16 Trustee's counsel and Morning Law Group agreed, on October 12, 2023, that Morning Law Group

1 would advance my 80% fees/100% expense payments for July, August, September and October. On 2 November 13, 2023, this Court entered an order approving the stipulation [Docket No. 622], in its
3 Order Approving Stipulation Between Chapter 11 Trustee and Morning Law Group, P.C. Re:
4 Payment of Monitor's Fees [Docket No. 661].

5 16. In an agreement between Trustee's counsel and Morning Law Group, Morning Law
6 Group advanced 80% fees/100% expense payments for November and December.

7 17. On January 3, 2024, Trustee filed his Motion To Surcharge Secured Creditors To 8 Pay The Monthly Fees And Expenses Of Ethics Compliance Monitor [Dkt. No. 806]. A hearing
9 was held on the Motion on January 31, 2024, at which hearing the Court granted the motion.

10 Specific Tasks Undertaken

11 18. The 90-Day Notice and the Legal Services Agreements. I reviewed the draft 90-Day
12 Notice required by California law and the draft Legal Services Agreements for clients who either
13 opted in (per the 90-Day Notice) or who failed to opt out of representation by MLG, and I made
14 suggestions as to wording. In particular, we focused on the clarity of the language of the 90-Day
15 Notice and, for the Legal Services Agreement, on ways to ensure that clients understood not just 16 what services were and were not covered by the Legal Services Agreement but also that clients
17 understood how they could convey information to MLG about intrusive telephone calls from 18 creditors that the clients might experience.

19 19. The Phoenix Law Group/Litigation Practice Group Disengagement Letters. I
20 reviewed the form of Disengagement Letter that Phoenix Law Group/Litigation Practice Group
21 intended to send to its clients and made suggestions as to wording.

22 20. Discussions with various state Attorneys General. I have been in contact with 23 attorneys for the attorneys general and consumer protection divisions of several states. (Each of 24 them has asked me to keep the names confidential—except to the Court—in order not to 25 compromise any of the actions that they might be contemplating.) These attorneys reached out to 26 me to ask specific questions about MLG's operations, and we have decided to have regular 27 meetings so that they can pass along any regulatory concerns that they have. These discussions
28 have, to date, focused on whether MLG needs to be licensed or bonded anywhere, how MLG is

1 protecting its clients' interests, and how MLG will determine whether its clients actually need
2 MLG's services or should be referred out to other lawyers. At one of these meetings, Joshua
3 Armstrong and one of his team members were also present, and they emphasized to the other
4 meeting participants that MLG is prepared to answer any questions that come up about 5 compliance or consumer protection issues. I have also reviewed MLG's correspondence to the 6 California Attorney General's Office and the Ohio Attorney General's Office.

7 21. Notice of Assumption and Assignment. I discussed with the Creditors' Committee, the 8 Trustee, and MLG ways to reduce any confusion that recipients of a Notice of Assumption and 9 Assignment might have, given that these recipients would also have received the 90-Day Notice
10 from MLG prior to receiving the Notice of Assumption and Assignment. There were several 11 meetings regarding the wording of this Notice, in part because I wanted to ensure that the Notice
12 minimized the confusion that LPG's clients might have in receiving the Notice after having received 13 Morning Law Group's 90-Day Notice several weeks earlier. We also discussed the method of 14 distribution of the Notice. I have also reviewed the FAQs associated with the Notice of Assumption
15 and Assignment. Most recently, I responded to an email from an LPG creditor who had questions
16 about his agreement with LPG.

17 22. Discussions about alleged failures of Phoenix Law. I have been monitoring the 18 docket to see if any Litigation Practice Group clients have had issues with Phoenix Law Group, and 19 as any allegations have surfaced, I have spoken with Morning Law Group to get more information.
20 Discussions included whether LPG, Phoenix Law, or MLG was representing various clients.
21 Morning Law Group was able to answer all of my questions to my satisfaction.

22 23. Discussion with Force 10, the Creditors' Committee, the Trustee, and MLG. In one 23 of the first interactions that Force 10 had with MLG, it requested certain information that would 24 possibly have compromised confidential client information. We developed a system for providing 25 anonymized client information to the Creditors' Committee from a Force 10 audit, and we entered 26 into a stipulated protective order to ensure that client confidential material stays protected.

27 24. Joint letter from Trustee and Monitor to state court judges. I participated in drafting
28 a letter to state court judges who were unhappy that Dan March had not appeared in certain matters

1 before them and were not permitting attorneys assigned by MLG, pursuant to the Interim
2 Association Agreement, to appear. The letter explained that LPG's records were poor, and that
3 MLG, in several matters, had not even been aware that the matters existed. It is my understanding
4 that the letter has not yet been finalized, but given the timing of the 90-day period and the fact that 5 MLG is now substituting in officially as counsel, the issue may be moot.

6 25. Review of draft website. I reviewed the draft website for MLG and made 7 suggestions.

8 26. Review of welcome letter to clients. I reviewed the form welcome letter to clients and 9 made suggestions.

10 27. Discussions about reporters' questions. I have joined in discussions about various 11 reporters' questions regarding MLG's handling of client matters, and I have spoken with reporters 12 myself.

13 28. Client migration. I have discussed with MLG the process of migrating clients from 14 an old client management system to a new one, and I am comfortable with the measures that MLG
15 is taking during the migration.

16 Fees and Costs Sought

17 29. Attached to this Application as composite Exhibit "2," and incorporated herein by 18 reference, are detailed billing records during the Covered Period, which set forth the detail and time
19 spent and the professional services rendered.

20 30. During the Covered Period, Monitor expended 34.10 hours rendered services for a 21 total amount due of $37,553.75, of which 80% has been paid, leaving a balance due of $7,509.95.

22 31. During the Covered Period, Aaron Kempf expended 26.50 hours rendered services
23 for a total amount due of $530.00. This expense was billed under with the expenses, and I have 24 already paid Mr. Kempf.

25 32. During the Covered Period, Monitor expended $2,584.50 in expenses in the Case.

College of Hotel Administration, the William S. Boyd School of Law, the College of Liberal Arts, the School of Medicine (co-reporting to the President), the School of Nursing, the College of Sciences, and the Greenspun College of Urban Affairs all reported to me, as did the Senior Vice Provost, the Vice Provost for Information Technology, the Assistant Vice President of Academic Resources, the Associate Vice Provost for the Office of Decision Support, and the Special Assistant to the Executive Vice President and Provost.

- Chaired the board of directors of UNLV Singapore Ltd.
- Worked with President Jessup, two co-chairs of the Top Tier Plan, and the chairs and co-chairs of five committees, to implement year one of the Top Tier strategic plan.
- Repaired relationships with the Faculty Senate.
- Hired three new deans (Liberal Arts, Fine Arts, and Allied Health) and one acting dean (Sciences).
- Reinstated the three-year dean review process and provided more autonomy to the deans of schools and colleges.

Responsibilities and Accomplishments as Acting Senior Vice President for Finance & Business:

- The departments of Planning and Construction, Budgets, Campus Audit, Human Resources, Facilities Management, Administration (Delivery Service, Telecommunication Services, Parking Services, and Real Estate), Risk Management and Safety, Purchasing, and the Controller reported to me.
- Served as a member of the negotiating team for the Las Vegas Stadium (Las Vegas Raiders).
- Repaired a challenging set of internal management issues.

Responsibilities and Accomplishments as Senior Advisor to the UNLV President:

- Developed the strategic plan (Top Tier) by working in concert with former Presidents Donald Snyder and Len Jessup, Jim Thomson (the Special Advisor to the President for Regional Development and also the former CEO of the RAND Corp.), our consultants (Academic Leadership Associates), Kyle Kaalberg (then the Special Assistant to the President's Chief of Staff), over 200 stakeholders inside and outside UNLV.
- Continued to serve as the point person for the execution of UNLV's strategic plan during all other central administration roles.

Responsibilities and Accomplishments as Interim Dean of Boyd School of Law:

- The Associate Dean for Academic Affairs, the Associate Dean for Student Affairs, the Associate Dean for Administration and External Affairs, the Associate Dean for Faculty Development and Research, the Director of the Wiener-Rogers Law Library, the Director of Information Technology and the Budget Director all reported to me.
